This May 17th tour will take you on the lightly traveled, paved back roads of the “driftless” area in the Ocooch Mountains—a rare part of the Midwest that was not scoured by glaciers 10,000 years ago. You will be amazed by the beauty of the world– class trout streams, rolling hills and emergence of spring foliage (trilliums should be in full bloom!) Several rural cottage businesses will be along the route, and some will serve as rest stops. Feel free to stop and peruse such shops as: Avalanche Looms, Blue Goose Cafe, Wild Things, Country Woman Soap, Kickapoo Reserve Visitor Center, and others. After the tour there will be plenty of food and fun for the whole family at Westby’s Syttende Mai Celebration in Downtown Westby.

Directions to Start:

Registration is at the historic Thoreson House and is visible from Main St. (Hwy 14/61). Look for the Stabbur Information Center (small log Norewegian-looking building with blue trim) on the east side of Main St. Watch for signs and bikes. Registration begins at 7:30 a.m. Start between 8:00-9:00 a.m.

Registration packets for riders over age 12 includes custom bike socks, cheese curds, lunch coupon and other cool schwag!

Event will go on rain or shine. Registration fee is non-refundable.
